Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurParadise, Idaho, may not be the largest town, but for newly minted professor Zoe Santangelo, it's the first step on the path to her big break. After teaching in a small Idaho school, her next stop is the Ivy League, and no one is going to stand in her way. She'll do what it takes to move up, to protect her students from a creepy campus stalker--and to protect her heart from Cal Jackson, the hot, hunky cowboy who keeps coming to her rescue.After a career-ending injury, Cal has left professional football behind and come home to work the family farm. He's determined not to get mixed up with any more city girls who don't want to settle down with a country boy. But after he rescues sassy geologist Zoe from a snowy ditch, he can't stop thinking about her. Can Cal keep Zoe safe from whoever is targeting her--and can he show her that having ambition doesn't mean she has to sacrifice love? Biographie de l'auteur Rosalind James began writing novels on a whim. Originally from Idaho, the University of California, Berkeley graduate found herself living and working in New Zealand as a marketing consultant when the urge to put pen to paper struck. Now she writes full time and lives in Berkeley, California, with her husband, a dog named Charlie, and three non-egg-laying bantam chickens.
