Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur A gripping crime thriller from the bestselling author of Hide and Seek. Three police officer brothers are carrying out their own form of vigilante justice by executing criminals who have escaped prosecution on technicalities. They have managed to keep their actions hidden until an innocent man finds himself an onlooker to their latest killing. As the witness struggles to decide who he can trust and where he can turn, DS James Ripley and DC Coffey may be his only hope, as their investigation of a routine missing person case uncovers a far more sinister story. As the paths of vigilantes, criminals and the police collide, the conspiracy unravels to a shocking conclusion with tragic consequences. Biographie de l'auteur Author of 'Hide and Seek' and the 'DS James Ripley' crime thriller series. I write psychological thrillers and crime fiction. I'm a ginger night owl that tries his best to avoid sunlight. Akin to a vampire, only I prefer brown sauce to blood. I have no sense of smell which is useful because I douse everything I eat with brown sauce. It also means my surname is quite fitting.
